

July 2021 Update

Today is July 2nd, and this has been an incredible week. Baby Nicolas has arrived!!! The little guy decided to surprise mom and dad and came 3 weeks early. Mom and baby are doing great! Sense my last update we have had some moms turn away but have not had anyone accept our full support. We have however continued to support Estella and Shay as well as keep in contact with many of the other men and women we meet on the sidewalk. Our team has grown a little bit sense the last time I wrote; Derrick and Drew have been a huge help. Also, James has been working tirelessly to get our interactions uploaded daily to our YouTube channel, Razing Altars (link at the bottom of the website), please subscribe to his channel, you will not be disappointed. Finally, V4TV will is offering a training class for anyone who is interested in joining us to end abortion in Utah. The class will be held at Crossroads Church (166 E. 10600 S.) on Sandy on July 31st at 4 P.M. We would love it if you would come and hear our plan to put an end to this American Holocaust. Sidewalk ministry may not be for everybody, but everybody can play a role in seeing this evil put under the feet of Jesus Christ.
